EXCHANGED SHOTS WITH RUSSIAN SHIPS

German Fleet is Moving in Baltic Sea; the Fighting in Galicia

Petrograd, June 7.—The following statement was issued by the war office on Saturday night:

"A strong fleet has appeared in the middle Baltic and exchanged shots with the Russian fleet near the Gulf of Riga. No important change has occurred on the banks of the Niemen river or on the front along the Narew river and the left bank of the Vistula.

"Our offensive on the Lower San has developed successfully. On June 3 and 4 the 14th Austrian army corps, which suffered defeat on preceding days on the front of Warchol, Podvolina and Strizka, fell back on fortified positions between the Rivers Leng and San, on the front of the villages of Slany and Taus and the stations of Lentsownia and Zarsina. Fighting for possession of this position continues. We took over 1,000 prisoners in this region on June 4.

"To help the Austrians, who were hard pressed by us, a strong force of German reserves concentrated on the left bank of the River Leng and delivered three furious attacks on the night of June 3-4 on the front between Krowica and Burdiz. These were repulsed.

"On the right bank of the River San, between the Rivers Labaczowka and Skeld, our infantry on June 4 captured several German trenches in the region of the village of Korzenica.

"On June 5, our troops captured the village of Starzawa on the left bank of the Wyssling. Our counter-attack dislodged him from this village, but he holds the ground on the neighboring heights.

"The enemy on the night of June 3-4 attacked our positions between the village of Krukienica and the River Strzawiz, but were repulsed with great losses. The enemy on June 3 continued his attacks on our bridgeheads on the Dniester river between Tysulienica and Stry and the Nikolajeff railway. We repulsed, during the course of the day, four desperate assaults on our positions near Usachberg, our troops using the bayonet and hand grenades. About noon on the following day the defeated enemy began to make a new front between the range of our artillery fire. Our troops, taking the offensive, attacked the enemy near Krycia. The fighting continues."

PURCHASING STAFF ALREADY AT WORK

Montreal, June 7.—Though the appointment is one with which the Canadian government is not directly concerned, it is well understood here that Sir Thomas Shaughnessy has been asked to direct in Canada and the United States the purchase of war supplies for the British government.

Sir Thomas' present visit to Great Britain is stated to be at the request of Lord Kitchener. It is understood that before leaving for Great Britain a part of the organization was perfected by Sir Thomas, and that the purchasing of munitions already is being made by a highly competent staff. The British government has had a purchasing agent in Canada for months, but the increasing orders and the necessity for better system in the work has led to the selection of Sir Thomas Shaughnessy to direct this important work. To some extent, it is understood, the C. P. R. purchasing organization will be utilized.

GERMANY IS WILLING TO GIVE COMPENSATION

Athens, June 7.—The German government has admitted the responsibility of the commander of the German submarine which on April 15 torpedoed and sank the Greek steamship Ellipsos in the North Sea.

The government has agreed to compensate the owners of the vessel, the value of which is to be decided by two experts, one Greek and one German.

CANADIAN GUNNERS DOING GOOD WORK

Wounded Soldier Says Artillery Has Been Playing Havoc With German Trenches.

London, June 7.—Private A. Jewel, who was wounded and has been in hospital here, gives an account of the coolness of Lieut. Campbell, who is in charge of one of the Canadian machine-gun sections.

"He went round looking for a position for his section," says Jewel. "Presently he turned around with a flourish of his cane and said, 'Come on boys, I've found a position for you; don't hurry.'"

"One day he came back, saying: 'I've had the beggars at me again. I have been hit five times.' Leisurely he removed his leggings to show the marks."

Private Jewel says the Canadian artillery has been playing havoc with the German trenches recently.

"The artillery now is better than ever before," he says, "but the Germans certainly are not a bit short of ammunition or food. In one trench recently taken by the Canadians there was food enough to keep a small town going."

"One officer's dugout had been papered with wall-paper and supplied with a bedstead, easy chairs and a stock of cigars. However, he had to go, for when I was wounded a week ago we were shifting the Germans out of two or three trenches daily."

WISHES TO GO TO FRONT.

Vienna, June 7.—Count Leopold von Berchtold, formerly Austro-Hungarian foreign minister, has offered his services in the Italian campaign as a volunteer automobilist. In the hope that he will be able to accompany his son to the front, the count is learning to be a chauffeur.

CZAR'S FORCES HOLD STRONG POSITIONS

Developments in Galicia Will Compel Austro-Germans to Lengthen Lines

Petrograd, June 7.—While General von Linsingen's army hammered at the wing of the Slav army on the banks of the Dniester river, the Russian centre was battling to-day to get into a position where it may strike the flank of General von Mackensen's main army.

North of the Stry river, and particularly in the region of Rozwadon, the Austro-Germans have begun a heavy bombardment preparatory to an attempt to cross the Dniester river. The developments in these widely-separated spheres, the experts point out, will compel the Austro-Germans to lengthen their lines and this will weaken them.

The regrouping of the Russian forces south of the Stry river still is in progress.

The Russian force which evacuated Perymel now is making a stand at a point northeast of Moscisla and northeast of Grodek.

Russian experts call attention to the fact that the great battles in the eastern theatre are being waged along the banks of the Stry and Dniester rivers. The developments in these widely-separated spheres, the experts point out, will compel the Austro-Germans to lengthen their lines and this will weaken them.

Doctor Said Sciatica-- Rheumatism--Lumbago

But He Could Not Help Me, and Endorsed the Use of Dr.
Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills

Mr. Wm. Parker, 105 Cayuga street, Brantford, Ont., tells in the following letter of his remarkable experience with Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills:

"My doctor treated me for some time for Sciatica, Rheumatism, Lumbago, but to no purpose, for I had to lay off work. The visiting officer of Sick Benefit called to see me and advised the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, stating that he had been cured of the same trouble by their use. I asked the druggist about them and he recommended them highly. Not being satisfied with this, went back to my doctor, and when he said they were good I began their use. The promptness with which they relieved the action of the kidneys and bowels was wonderful, and it was not long before I was rid of all my trouble."

"I was so glad that I could only walk by hanging on to a chair or the wall. My wife had to lace my shoes. Only those who have had this ailment can realize the way I suffered. I am writing this letter to let people who have my trouble know of these pills. You are at liberty to use this letter, and if anyone interested will call or write to me I will give every detail."

Write to Mr. Parker, enclosing stamp for reply, and he will verify this statement. He will do this out of the gratitude he feels for his cure and because he realizes how difficult it is to obtain the cure of these dreadfully painful ailments.

There are so many treatments recommended for rheumatism that you naturally doubt them all. Here is an opportunity for you to verify the cure and put this great medicine to the test. It will only cost you a quarter of a dollar to try Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. They get at the very foundation of rheumatism, and by removing the poisons from the system take away the cause of pain and ache.

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, one pill a dose, 25 cents a box, all dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto.

Members of German Committee Also Advise That Trains Be Wrecked

New York, June 7.—Local labor leaders have been notified by St. Louis labor men that they have received copies of a secret circular asking Americans to dynamite ammunition plants and wreck trains in order to stop the exportation of materials to Britain.

The statement issued by the St. Louis labor men says:

"Last Friday we received at our office a bundle of newspapers from Germany. The postmark showed that they had been mailed in Hamburg, Germany. The address read: 'Arbeiter Zeitung and Labor, Fourth street, near Chestnut (or near Market street), 3d floor, St. Louis, Mo., U. S. A.' No doubt the sender had in mind our old International Bank Building office on Fourth and Chestnut streets.

"On opening the bundle we found therein copies of the following German daily papers: The General Anzeiger of Frankfurt-on-the-Main, the Berliner Abendpost, of Berlin, and the Hanoversche Anzeiger, of Hanover. Carefully wrapped up in these newspapers were fifty copies of a circular printed on yellow paper and in poor English, which was as follows:

"To the American patriot!
A committee of Good German and Irish Patriots in America is against to keep open the 'War in Europe'; therefore it is time to make an end of it.

If war materials be sent by Trains, such trains be correct the tracks to be removed on a point, which the height about 3,000 feet deep, so that everything on Materials goes to 1,000 pieces.

All trains go to be watched closely except those go to Canada from the United States to Seattle and Vancouver and from there to Wladivostok (Russia).

All Faktories which manufacturing War material for English friends or Russia must be destroyed by Fire or Dynamite. If Mr. Bryan and Mr. Wilson want to be British then it is better to go there and stand there, to watch when Britain put up the American flag, in order to save there 'Ships from to be sunk'.

It must be destroyed: The Fore River Ship yards at Quincy, Ill. or Mass.

2. The Bethlehem Steel Corporation, Pa., which put up Schrapnell. The President of the Company claims, he has order for 500 Millions. That is enough to kill all People in America and Europe.

3. Ky Wagon Manufacturing Co. to deliver 8000 Wagons.
The Financial News from New York claims the Powder Manufacturing Cop at Mapong (Probably Du Pont) will deliver for 50 Millions Dollars of Powder and America calls herself Neutral.

It is better to wreck a Train with War material as see thousands of men kill.

A Reward from 1000 Dollars to 10,000 Dollars will be paid to a German or Irish Patriot, to help us in this War. To help us annihilate our enemies.

THE GERMAN COMMITTEE.

"In addition to the fifty copies of this circular, hidden in one of the newspapers, was a page of notes, written in German, which, freely translated, were as follows:

"Help us, please! I was a member in St. Louis from 1896 to 1906. Either distribute the enclosed circulars in the morning in any factory or post them up at 11 o'clock at night at some street corner. This becomes necessary, if the Washington crowd will not stand or prohibit the sending of war munitions to the Allies! O, that dollar! We are losing too many people. By God, we deserve a place in heaven! S. D. P. Formerly a member."

ALLEGES THE GERMANS HAVE PLENTY OF FOOD

Amsterdam, June 7.—A telegram from Berlin states that Clemens Delbrueck, German minister of the interior, has informed the Prussian Diet that the food problem may be regarded as solved, and that there may even be carried over considerable reserves into the coming harvest year.

An inventory of the stocks of flour showed a surplus of 6,965,329 double hundred-weights. Potato statistics of May 15 were similarly favorable, the supply being on a level with that of normal times.

ITALIANS HAVE BETTER GUNS THAN AUSTRIANS

Rome, June 7.—The following official statement was issued on Saturday night at the headquarters of the Italian staff: "Mind operations of our troops continue along the entire front from St. Etienne to the Alps."

"On the plateau of Lavaron and Folgaria the superiority of our artillery in the bombardment of Austrian forts is becoming more and more manifest. Our infantry, thus effectively supported, is establishing more firmly on the conquered territory."

MACHINE IS MOVING,
SAYS LLOYD GEORGE

The Minister of Munitions is Optimistic; Made a Statement To-day

London, June 7.—"At last I believe things are going all right. I feel the machine beginning to move."

This is a statement Rt. Hon. David Lloyd George made to-day at the new office of the ministry of munitions.

Huge orders already have been placed for high-explosive shells, but a tremendous amount of work must be accomplished yet. The minister's statement says that the new department should have more direct control over labor and must be able to move bodies of skilled workers where they are required most.

Mr. Lloyd George was very much impressed by the inspection at Liverpool. A dockers' battalion there might be the solution of the greater problem. In an extension of this scheme, skilled men might be enlisted and given uniforms in an industrial army under the orders of the state.

Mr. Lloyd George hopes and believes his revelation of the truth and the vital necessity of the nation will sweep away all difficulties the employees might have raised.

MILITARY BISHOP.

Rome, June 7.—The papal official organ publishes a pontifical decree instituting the office of Military Bishop. The new bishop will be charged with the appointment of chaplains for the land and sea forces of Italy and he also will bless the nation's battleflags and direct the spiritual organization of the military. The first nominee to this bishopric is Monsignor Angelo Bortoluzzi.

AROUSED.

There is an ominous tone in the comments of the leading American papers on the reply of the German government to the Wilson note calling for an explanation of the sinking of the Lusitania. The cabinet at Washington is said to be divided into two factions, the minority, headed by Secretary of State Bryan, being in favor of "peace at any price." But President Wilson has "put his hand to the plough" calmly and deliberately, and is not one to turn back even when faced by a crisis of tremendous import. Germany in her reply has evaded the issue and aggravated her offences, according to the judgment of practically all who voice the sentiments of the nation. The universal demand is that the Teutonic government be held firmly to the issue, and that no quibbling or evasion for the purpose of securing delay, further violations of international law attended by slaughter of non-combatants continuing in the meanwhile, shall be permitted. Newspapers which are bitterly opposed to the president in domestic affairs support him strongly in the attitude he hitherto has taken in his dealings with Germany. The Boston Transcript, a journal which would be given a high place in any country, concludes an able article on the situation in the following terms:

"It is a solemn coincidence that sends the German note to our people on a day hallowed by memories of our own great war. Never was the nation nearer one in life and loyalty, never firmer in its resolve that the republic which that war saved shall not allow its citizens to be done to death with impunity upon the high seas. The time has come for our government to define to Germany strict accountability in the terms and tone of an ultimatum. Murder can be disclaimed, but it cannot be debated.

"This, of all days, is no time for America to show herself unworthy of her heroic dead.

"They were not too proud to fight."

AT THE DARDANELLES.

Mr. Churchill's statement that the allies at the Dardanelles were within a few miles of a victory such as the war had not seen is regarded by some commentators as signifying recent marked progress in that difficult region. It is altogether probable, however, that the late first lord was referring to the promising outlook of the general situation in that quarter and not to the movement which has been developing during the last few days.

The objective of the allies in the fortress of Kilit Bahr, which commands the entrance to the narrows on the European side. The British and French land forces are endeavoring to gain a position at the rear of this fortress which will enable them to make it untenable. But before this can be accomplished they must take two very formidable lines of fortified heights. The first is known as the line of Atchi Babi, and stretches across the peninsula about five miles from its western tip. The second line, which is even more difficult, is known as the line of Soghan Dere. It is in the form of an arc curving from a point beyond the narrows to a point on the western side. Before Atchi Babi can be taken the heights of Kiritli must be occupied. An unconfirmed report on Saturday stated that the British had captured it.

Thus the conquest of the two strong lines along the heights will be a heavy task and one that cannot be disposed of with a single blow. The plan must be made trench by trench, sapping and mining forward and wearing the enemy down through the losses he sustains in his counter-attacks, carried out on the German model. It is true that the allies are within a few miles of the positions which would enable them to command Kilit Bahr, but as long as the Turks are able to hold them in force five or six miles is a long, long way.

On the other hand, the Turks have sustained terrible losses, which must be very depressing to Constantinople. The activity of British submarines in the Sea of Marmora and the vigilance of the allied fleet in the Gulf of Saros must make the conveyance of supplies and reinforcements to the peninsula a very difficult performance. Moreover, the Turkish ammunition supply must be getting dangerously low, for in spite of the large quantities imported from Germany in the early stages of the war Turkey was poorly equipped in this respect and her campaigns in the Caucasus have been a heavy drain upon her resources.

Kilit Bahr is the key to the narrows, and the narrows is the key to Constantinople. The position of Soghan Dere, behind Kilit Bahr, therefore, is the key to the Ottoman capital. Once the British and French troops are established on that arc of hills, which even now their artillery can reach without difficulty, the bell will have rung for the curtain to fall upon the Ottoman empire in Europe. With Kilit Bahr in the possession of the allies, the series of fortresses on the Asiatic side, which it dominates, will become untenable. Likewise the submarine torpedo tubes and the mine stations along the shores will be destroyed and the allies' fleet within a very short time will pass into the Sea of Marmora and on to Constantinople. The progress is slow and costly, but, as Mr. Churchill pointed out, the reward will be worth the effort and sacrifice.

AUTOCRACY VS. DEMOCRACY.

A well-known American publication says: "Whether a big democracy, with its looser, freer organization, can ever be as efficient for fighting purposes as the drilled, regimented, centralized state is doubtful; but it is a hundred times more promising for the development of civilization." The German system has the advantage of superior preparedness, which is bound to score in the early stages of a great war. It takes time for a democracy to get under way, but when it does it breaks down all resistance. The regimented, centralized organization is rigid, operated on thumb rule and cannot adjust itself to unforeseen developments. If it loses the initiative it is lost. Machines must work upon specially selected bases. A democratic organization is elastic and can adapt itself to new conditions as they arise. German officers have commented frequently upon the fertility of resource shown by the French and British armies in sudden difficult developments in the present war.

But there is something more—the moral or spirit which is to numbers as three is to one. The soldiers of a democracy fight for more than their country in itself. They fight for the rights and privileges won by them through centuries of striving, for liberty of action and conscience, which is more to them than their lives. The troops who march to battle under the German system have no such inspiration. They fight for conquest, for a country which in their eyes is great and worth fighting for because it has what they believe to be an invincible army. They do not fight for liberty, because they do not know what liberty is.

The efficiency of a machine in war a democracy never can have, because its normal genius is for the triumphs of peace and not for military conquest. But its system develops a measure of strength, resource, originality, adaptability, staying power and the will to sacrifice which can surmount obstacles no machine can overcome. Battles may be won by the rigid centralized autocratic system but it is the democracy that wins wars. The armies with which Napoleon fought all Europe for many years were the product of a new-born democracy.

HER DAY IS DONE.

A Turk who formerly belonged to the Liberal wing of the Young Turk party has contributed an article to the American press in which he says:

"We will be certainly defeated, and immediately afterward we will start all over again, 'doing business at the same old stand,' whatever is left of our 'integrity' will be 'guaranteed' jointly by our combined enemies and friends, and we will continue paying interest on our national debts; for we are a hopeless case."

He is quite mistaken. Turkey will not begin over again, doing business at the same old stand, because the enemies of the great powers. If there is one thing more than another upon which the allies are in perfect harmony it is that the Ottoman empire as now constituted is a thorn in the flesh of civilization and must be removed. It has poisoned Europe and has been the indirect cause of more wars than all the other sources of trouble put together. Clinging on the seaports and commercial rivalries of the great powers it has manoeuvred them into hostile camps for generations and the time has come to put an end to it.

The Turkish empire is being assailed with success from all directions. The British have scored a signal gain in the valley of the Tigris and are now half way to Bagdad, a circumstance which must make pan-Germans bellow with rage, for it blasts forever their expensive dream of expansion in Mesopotamia. Smyrna is being blockaded and large Italian forces have been concentrated on the island of Rhodes awaiting the declaration of war between their country and Turkey for an attack upon Ottoman territory bordering on the Aegean Sea. The Russians are now advancing westward through Turkish Armenia and British and French land and sea forces are pressing forward at the Dardanelles. Within a few weeks, at the outside, the Turks will be attacked from the north by Bulgaria.

There may be certain subsidiary differences between the banded enemies of the Turko-German Kultur, but there will be none concerning the main point. The Turkish empire has run its course and nothing can save it. It may sue for peace before Constantinople hears the thunder of the guns of the fleet, but this will not avert disaster. It was a blight on the progress of the world before the injection of German Kultur made it worse. It was formally and earnestly warned. It made its choice and must abide by it.

SHOT INTO FAME.

The proprietor of the sugar refinery at Souchez will have a bonanza when the war is over. A few weeks ago the fame of that establishment was limited to its immediate vicinity. Now it is known all over the world as a place of military importance for the capture of which French and Germans sacrificed thousands of lives and expended fortunes in ammunition. It has changed hands four or five times, and Berlin now admits that it rests finally in French hands. If its owner survive the war he should not reconstruct it. The tourists who will pay handsomely to inspect it will provide him with another refinery or several of them on another site. War has solved the problem of his commercial future.

The fortunes of the struggle have jerked from the darkest obscurity various humble habitations and points to which even the people of the districts in which they are located paid no attention. The old mill on the Yser near Dixmude, a brewery in the environs of Neuport, the bridge-head at Het Saas, the chateau at Carency and the cemetery of Abain are now on the map. Geographers have dignified Hill 60 with a name and style. We would not visit Alsace without being shown Hartmann's Wellerkopf, paying the way with a small fortune in gratuities if we had one. There will be hundreds of farm houses and little villages which will take their places with La Haye Sainte and Hougomont in the annals of history. Those two positions were the keys to the victory of Waterloo. Some isolated inn, tannery or chapel may be the key to success in the greatest war of all the ages.

Curiously twisted is the reasoning faculty of the German higher command. It authorizes the bombardment of unfortified towns in the British Isles in the expectation that it will frighten the people into demanding peace at any price. The effect, of course, of this kind of warfare is to make the British empire more formidable than ever. It draws political parties together, unites other factions and increases the determination to fight with every resource until there is nothing left of the Kultur which claps its hands in glee when its uniformed thugs slay infants in their sleep.

Ten years ago a mob was so infuriated at David Lloyd George that it would have lynched him could it have laid its hands on him after he had delivered one of his speeches in opposition to the Boer War. To-day he is the most conspicuous figure in the United Kingdom outside the sovereign and is acclaimed by even the Unionist party as the most vital force in the country, the one man who can stimulate the people to their maximum effort in the great struggle now in progress. He is Prussia's most dangerous potential enemy.

A letter from the east says business is brightening up considerably throughout Canada. There is room for improvement, certainly, according to accounts received from various sections of the west. The crop prospects in all parts of the country were never better, and that may be a harbinger of better times. So that there is a silver lining to the cloud that gathered in the sky immediately after a certain lamentable political lapse on the part of the people of Canada.

The Dutch, however, had their eyes opened, are saying harsh things about their German neighbors. One of the leading Huns is so desolated at the ingratitude of the principal Dutch newspapers that he is suing it for libel. But for the fact that the German armies all have urgent matters to attend to elsewhere, a force might be sent to Amsterdam to see that justice is fairly administered in the case.

delight to pass through some of the barnacles which the acting-premier was preparing to scrape from the hull of the ship of state. They now will hang on by their eye-teeth until the first minister returns. But even he will not be able to save them. The electors have discovered that their idol has feet of clay.

Discussing the torpedoing of the Nebraska following the Lusitania massacre, the New York Herald says: "Thus it looks very much as if the position of Germany was that of a red-handed murderer, who had slain nearly all the family, writing a belated letter excusing the crime and at the same time attempting to kill the survivors. At no time has the outlook been so precarious."

King Constantine of Greece is going to lose several of his ribs. Well before this misunderstanding in Europe, and elsewhere, is settled, it is to be hoped some of Constantine's far from esteemed contemporaries will be shorn of parts more vital than mere ribs.

The Huns continue their atrocities on "earth, air and water." Necessity knows no law, as one of the leading assassins said when apologizing for the initiatory massacres and worse in Belgium.

YOUTH AND AGE.

New York Herald.

Physicians have for some time about made up their minds that the use of oxygen in lung affections of the aged is in spite of the promise at its introduction, of very little service, unless perhaps to prolong fading life for a few hours. It is interesting to find, then, that just at this time comes the announcement that this gas in connection with mechanical artificial respiration may actually be life-saving for infants just born, in whom breathing has not been established normally as yet.

Such is the way of life. Young initial vitality can take advantage of the slightest help offered to it. Age with waning vital force loses its grasp even of what seems sure aid. Youth will be served.

ARCHANGEL.

Richmond Times-Dispatch. Some time this month the Russian port of Archangel, ice-bound through all the long winter, will be opened to navigation. When the ice disappears and navigation is rendered possible, the situation of the Russian armies in the field will be bettered tremendously, for through Archangel Russia may receive shipments of arms, ammunition and other war supplies that she needs vitally.

READY TO MAKE AN ATTACK ON TRENT

Udine, June 7.—A general Italian advance is taking place to-day across the Isonzo river from Caporetto to the sea, a distance of about forty miles. The movement is one of importance and hard fighting is taking place at Gradisca and in the vicinity of that town.

The Italian authorities are drawing together the screen of secrecy as to the Italian operations. Nevertheless it may be said that masses of Italian troops have been concentrated on the roads from Cormons, Palmanova, and Cervignano.

The resistance of the Austrians is becoming stronger daily. This, Italian staff officers declare, has had the effect of making their men more determined. Tolmein, on the east side of the Isonzo, is one of the Italian objectives.

Rome, June 7.—The following official statement was issued by the war office yesterday:

"Naval detachments yesterday cut the cables uniting the continent and the islands of the Dalmatian archipelago. All lighthouses and lookout stations of the islands were destroyed. The railway between Cattaro and Ragusa was bombarded and damaged seriously.

"The same day a group of our destroyers, which were attacked unsuccessfully by Austrian aeroplanes, again bombarded Monfalcone and sank several sailing craft laden with merchandise. Large vessels supporting the destroyers cruised in the same waters without seeing the enemy."

London, May 7.—The fighting along the central section of the Isonzo river has developed a series of fierce engagements with the Italians finding stronger opposition than they hitherto had met, the Austrians being firmly entrenched.

Let any man speak long enough, he will get believers.—R. L. Stevenson.

Around the Camp Fire

After the day is past, that is when music is desirable. It is then, of all times, the Columbia proves its worth as a camp pal. There is nothing to equal it, not even a whole brass band and a bevy of the world's greatest singers, because the Columbia brings to you "all the music of all the world."

COLUMBIA

There are many different styles of the Columbia instrument. Each different style has a price of its own, so that there is a Columbia to fit almost every purse and almost every taste. In the Columbia line there are several instruments whose general design and extreme portability render them exceptionally good camp companions. Go where you will among the best appointed camps in and around Victoria this summer and you will find the Columbia a leading feature. If you haven't a Columbia at your camp you don't know what you are missing this summer.

It doesn't require much of an investment; just a few dollars down and a few dollars a month, arranged on any basis that is agreeable to you, and you take the Columbia you choose, and use it while you are paying for it.

The capable instructor of the corps, W. Stacey, has had the help of his assistant, John Dowler this year in the training of the corps, the latter being for a number of years the officer commanding the high school cadet battalion, which has brought to a high state of perfection. No doubt the benefit of his experience will be of great value to the corps, and the boys are determined to give a good account of themselves. The board of school trustees extends a general invitation to all Esquimalt residents who are known to be the boys' welfare to be present and witness the inspection.

Child Knocked Down.—A child named Arnold Johnson, living on Cranmore road, was knocked down by a flying horse on Fort Street, and shaken up. ## COMFORT AND STYLE IN NEW MOTOR COATS

Hats Follow Dictates of Fashion; New Three-Quarter Mode

New York, June 5. In days of old, when motoring held meant freakish clothes and goggles big as window-lights. Women looked perfect frights; But now that sense reigns over fashion, Mlady fair of the limousine. Wears clothes in the car that are fit to be seen.

Thanks to the friendly jingle, we have the whole repertoire of motoring, so far as clothes are concerned, before us. It does not mean, however, that garments for this particular purpose have lost one whit of distinction. To-day, when every man and his neighbor owns a car, motoring apparel falls into a natural place, being fashioned, like other sports clothes, first for comfort and then for style, but never to advertise the fact that father, husband, or brother owns a roadster, a seven-passenger, or an electric.

What a contrast the trim coats and modish hats of the present times are to the paraphernalia we donned for the first ride in the little high-seated, red car that puffed and groaned and died on the first hill. The shiny coats, first cousin to the mackintosh, the bulky bonnets, and especially cut, elastic-shirred veils were never meant for anything more dignified than the car. How different the modern costume is! With smartly tailored separate coat, trim hat and becoming veil, a woman can motor, call, or even enjoy a stroll on the beach, content in the fact that she is inconspicuously well-gowned.

The car demands only warmth and comfort. Aside from these two factors, the clothing may meet any requirement of the daily life. The devotee of the country club may have one of the new loose three-quarter coats with sailor collar and broad sash. An English blazer flannel of this type looks stunning on the golf links, with a varnished raffia hat, or one of the new felt shapes, embroidered with wool to match the stripes. Waterfall silk is another material belonging strictly to this season, which is finding favor in coats for sports and motoring. The silky, ribbed velour fiber will not combine with any rough-and-ready hat; therefore, simultaneously with the vogue of the fabric, we have soft hats made of half-inch bias folds of silk. These folds start at the center of the crown and wind around and around to the outside of the brim, which is faced with hemp. Such hats are trimmed only with a pearl buckle, a bead ornament, or a silk tassel; they come in white, peach blossom pink, or pale blue, to match the shade of the waterfall silk. Then, for the motorist on sports bent, who fancies sweaters, there is a new silk Jersey fabric, a compromise between a pure woven silk and a knitted material. Here, too, light shades are featured. There is a coat of delicate pink, like frozen ice-cream, with collar and lower edge trimmed with white fur, that looks good enough to eat.

This idea of the fur is surely an odd fancy for hot June. One model of white has a mink collar, and a pale blue coat is edged with fox. The stores are using these merely to attract attention, never really expecting to sell them. However, you never can tell what will please the heart of the fair lady. Take for instance, the cretonne hats; who would ever suppose that she would dream of wearing furniture covering with her swagger sweater? No matter how startling, the fact remains! Smart black-and-white effects and gaily flowered hats of cretonne dot the field set aside for sports. Perchance it is because they fit the head so well that the woman who motors, walks, or golfs favors them.

Not alone the woman who loves sports, but those, too, who find enjoyment in less strenuous pleasures follow the call of the motor-car; the motor-car to-day is a necessity, not a luxury, again, comfort and style are first essentials in clothes, giving the woman who motors to make her calls, or merely for a breath of the great outdoors, loose coats in the smart three-quarter length and hats in approved sailor and tricorn shapes.

There were some stunning models worn at the races last week. One woman, who motored out from town, had a black-and-white checked velour coat that attracted considerable attention. This was belted high in the new Empire style, had the latest three-quarter-length sleeve and the collar and cuffs were faced with Hague blue velour. There was also an inner collar of orangey faring over the revers. The hat was soft leather, with a black-and-white checked, knitted band that showed through the changeable veil of blue and brown chiffon, hemstitched together.

Among the other weather-proof top-coats, mottled English worsted in heather mixtures predominated, and there were a few two-toned whipcords and olive covers with suede belts. The medium-sized sailor hat was a favorite with these coats; usually with the brim of black straw and the crown of taffeta, satin, or silk beaver.

The number of pongee, shantung and Tussah silk coats was really surprising for the early season. There is no doubt these will be even more popular as the summer advances. Unlike the woollens, they are made full length. Some have such touches as carved ivory buttons, but there is no color to mar the shade of the natural pongee. Even the hats are the same material.

The taffeta coat is another practical mode for motoring. Here, the loose Norfolk and three-quarter-length styles are followed. The silk is usually dark blue, or black, touched with mustard at the collar and cuffs.

With the hat and coat, motoring apparel practically ceases, for what is worn under the coat is purely a matter of choice. The sportswoman dons her trig linen or corduroy skirt and manish blouse, while the woman motoring to see a friend wears a comfortable one-piece dress. Blue taffeta is a material which shows little dirt and is well adapted to this purpose. There is an excellent model shown in dark blue Scotch plaid cut in the new Pur-tan style. The waist is plain, save for the organdy collar and cuffs; the wide belt has a white buckle and the skirt has grouped inset pleats at the side. Such a costume could be worn in the motor with a pongee, worsted, or taffeta coat, and is suitable for calling, shopping, or almost any afternoon affair milady might chance to attend.

One woman who motors a great deal has adopted a costume of this type: by wearing a fine net over her hair she is always presentable when she leaves the car. The small sunshade is another convenience. These come in all colors and really save a person from tanning. If the motorist remembers these little essentials, and carries cold-cream and powder in her bag, there is no excuse in this day and age for being anything but fresh and becomingly gowned.

VANCOUVER PROTESTED JOE DAKERS

VICTORIA TIES UP AMATEUR SERIES

Mann Cup-Holders Routed in Spectacular Lacrosse Match; Final Score 5 to 3

Because of the protest that the Vancouver club lodged against Joe Dakers, the Victoria management refused to play this defence star on Saturday. Coach Springer, however, expects to have Dakers in uniform for the next game at Vancouver, and as steps are now being taken to secure Dakers' card from the A. A. U., the locals count on this player for future games. Dakers has played in local soccer and baseball leagues, so that the securing of the amateur card is a mere formality, his reinstatement having been passed upon months ago.

League Standing.

	Won.	Lost.	Pct.
Vancouver	1	1	.500
Westminster	1	1	.500

Completely outplaying the Vancouver twelve in the final stages of the game, Victoria stepped into the running for the Mann cup on Saturday afternoon, when they defeated the champions 5 to 3, at the Royal Athletic park. The locals surprised the enthusiastic crowd that witnessed the defeat of the cup holders, and at the same time established themselves as contenders for this trophy, by their brilliant all-round display. The game was one of the cleanest ever staged in the capital, Victoria's speed and superior team work being the main factors in the downfall of the title holders.

Coach Springer trotted out a greatly changed team for the crucial test with the champions, and his judgment was more than vindicated by the splendid results attained. Jerry Clute stepped into a uniform without a minute's practice and played magnificent lacrosse, while Clarence McCarter, Jimmy Petticrew and Dutch Clegg, without any preparation to speak of, strengthened the locals wonderfully. The Victoria twelve on Saturday possessed all the necessary qualifications of a championship twelve. They had speed to burn, plenty of combination and played the game right through. It was a pleasing reversal of form over the defeat on the holiday, and it will give the team the necessary encouragement for their coming games away from home.

Vancouver had several changes over last year, but they were well beaten in Saturday's clash. The mainlanders rely principally upon their shifty fielding and passing to win but with the re-organized Victoria defence, they were able to do but little. Two of Vancouver's goals were long shots that took deceptive bounds and they were unable to work the odd man game, despite the fact that Victoria suffered just four times the amount of penalties, that V. A. C. had to put up with. The locals played surprising well on the defensive, a big improvement being shown in their ball getting behind their own goal, while the addition of Clute, McCarter and Petticrew to the home field, rounded out a very aggressive attack. It speaks wonders for a team to beat Vancouver, with such a shaking up as the Victoria twelve experienced last week.

Right from the jump Victoria went after the visitors. Johnny Johnson belted one through on a determined rush, Feedham scoring for Vancouver just as the quarter ended. Both teams notched a pair of goals in the third period Petticrew and Baker sending the locals into the lead, only to have Hill and McWhinnie score for the Terminus and even the score. The Victoria home clinched the winning goals in the third period when Clute and McCarter tallied, the locals holding Vancouver without a score for the entire second half.

Every man on the Victoria club played high class lacrosse, but the showing of Petticrew, a junior on the defence, was especially good. Clute handled his chances well, while Okell and Johnson did a tremendous amount of fielding. Clute and Baker starred on the home, with Petticrew and McCarter also prominent. Davis and Painter were the pick of the visitors. Few penalties were handed out, McDougall and Hill clashing in the third period and both getting chased. Okell got a nasty cut in a scrimmage, but continued, while Cyril Baker also ran foul of the hickory.

ROYALS WINNERS IN SLUGGING MATCH ON BANKS OF FRASER

Westminster took the lead in the professional lacrosse series, defeating Vancouver 12 to 7, at the Royal City, on Saturday. The Salmonbellies handed out a lot of hard checks, and Referee Patrick was kept busy chasing the offenders to the fence. Boss Johnson took a ten-minute rest for clearing his goal of Red Shirts athletes, the cup holders getting three during his stay on the side lines.

Bones Allen started for Vancouver with three goals, Grumpy Spring getting four for the Royals. The teams and summary: Westminster, Position: Vancouver. Clark, Goal: Johnson. Howard, Point: Griffiths. ## CRICKET VICTORIES

Garrison Won Handily From the Victoria Eleven; Bowlers Had Best of Matches

Garrison again won on Saturday in the Victoria and District Cricket league, this club having won every league match to date. They scored 136 against Victoria A1, the latter eleven compiling 77 runs. Fifth Regiment won from the Civic Service 169 to 67, while the Victoria A2 team defaulted to the Congregational club. In an exhibition match the University School won from the Navy, 168 to 97.

There were very few scores over the half century on Saturday, the bowlers having a fine week-end. Capt. Birch scored 50 for the Fifth Regiment, A. B. Lawrence getting 53 for Victoria A2 in an exhibition match. Roberts, of the Navy, with 60, was the highest scorer for the day. Haines, of the Civic Service, took 5 wickets for 38 runs against the Fifth Regiment, while Erickson, of the Congregational club, took 7 for 46. Westwood and Birch also bowled in nice style.

All round good hitting enabled the Garrison to win from Victoria A1. There were no particularly high scores for the winners, though Kelly and Beales registered 30 and 28, respectively. Garrison had 20 extras. Gurney, of the Victoria club, with 46, was the only member of that club to reach double figures. The detailed score:

SAILORS ENTERTAINED

Guests of Navy League Chapter and Institute Auxiliary.

Another day's pleasure was indulged in by petty officers and men from H. M. S. Kent on Saturday, the hosts on this occasion being the Navy League Chapter, I. O. D. E., and the Women's Auxiliary of the Connaught Seamen's Institute. The outing commenced at 1 o'clock, when about 175 of the blue-jackets boarded motor cars provided by the Navy League Chapter. For about two hours the party toured the city, the motor drive, Seamen's Hall, park, Esplanade, Ross bay, Shown bay, and Oak bay, and out to Uplands park before returning to town, by way of the Gorge.

The cars with their gay flags and jolly sailor-faces attracted much notice as they passed through the city

Suppose We Pared This Goodyear Fortified Tire

Suppose we pared the Goodyear All-Weather Tread. There still would be a full-built tire left. For this famous tread is double-thick, and the "carcass" beneath is made extra-strong to support it.

That's what men mean when they tell you that Goodyears are built in perfect balance. For what is the good of a heavy tread that you have to discard when the tire beneath gives out prematurely? This fault, in many rival tires, is avoided in Goodyear construction.

Goodyears Rule Because—

Five vital features have put these tires on top in four short years. But these five features we control. And no rival has them:

Goodyear's All-Weather Tread—now double-thick, with deep-cut, close-set, sharp-edged blocks. They grip where average tires slip. They minimize punctures and multiply mileage.

Goodyear's No-Rim-Cut Feature—that fortifies against rim-cutting in the best way science has discovered. This patented method, though widely copied, has never been equaled.

Goodyear's "On-Air" Cure—that protects against blowouts. We give each tire this second cure on bags of air. The air, super-heated, expands and "irons out" any wrinkle the fabric may contain.

No other tire maker goes to this expense. So wrinkled fabric in rival tires causes blowouts.

Goodyear's Rubber Rivets—hundreds of them vulcanized between the tread and "carcass." The exclusive use of this method cost $50,000. It reduces loose tread risk by 60 per cent.

Goodyear's Braided Wire Tape—six flat

ON STRONG SUPPORT

Granby Up and Other Leading Stocks Hold Bullish Position

McGillivray Creek was the leader of the list this morning, taking precedence to Coronation. It closed at 70.95, and the supporting power was of an influential character. Canadian Consolidated re-entered the market, but having been quoted since the war outbreak.

Granby was quoted one point up, and Portland Canal was favored by buyers. The situation in Coronation Gold remained bullish without disclosing any fresh feature. For a third session the quotation of this issue was 43c, yet, notwithstanding the checked advance, there have been no offerings thrust on the market. Both American and Canadian Marconi were quoted again.

BILL WAS PASSED BY COMMONS TO-DAY

Simon Says Army Needs as Many Shells as Can Be Made in the British Isles

London, June 7.—The bill to create a ministry of munitions was passed by the house of commons this afternoon.

Home Secretary Simon, in moving the final reading of the measure, explained that the new department would concern itself with the supply of munitions, but that the fighting departments would determine the nature, extent and urgency of their needs. The home secretary said the army wanted as many shells as organized industry was capable of producing and as quickly as possible.

The bill evoked some opposition. W. M. R. Pringle, Liberal member for the northwest division of Lanarkshire, advanced the argument that the bill gave the new minister unlimited power. He was virtually a dictator, and to supply munitions he could take, if necessary, the most radical steps in the coalfields.

Philip Snowden, Socialist member for Blackburn, announced that if any attempts were made to thrust forced labor on the country he would oppose it at every stage.

John Dillon, Nationalist member for East Mayo, said: "Before you say 'Up, dictator' we are entitled to know what his powers are to be. Certain newspapers are applauding the ideals of Prussianism. We must take care that the war does not result in Prussianism in this country."

THREE SUBMARINES TRAPPED BY BRITISH?

Passengers Arriving at New York Say They Were Caught in Firth of Clyde

New York, June 7.—Three German submarines recently were trapped and captured in the Firth of Clyde, near Glasgow, according to persons arriving here to-day on the steamship Cameronia from Glasgow and Liverpool. It was asserted that the under-sea boats had penetrated far into the Firth of Clyde, not far from the city, had been detected there and trapped by nets dropped in the narrow fairway, through which they attempted to leave.

They remained submerged for sixty hours, it was said, then came to the surface and surrendered.

No such incident has been mentioned in any of the official British announcements.

When the Cameronia left Glasgow ordinary business there virtually had been suspended and all available men were employed in the government shipyards. On the outward voyage the Cameronia took more than 1,800 Canadian troops across the ocean. Six torpedo boat destroyers convoyed her through the far zone.

THREE VESSELS SUNK BY GERMAN PIRATES

A Barque, a Steamer and a Trawler Sent Down; No Lives Lost

London, June 7.—The British barque Sunlight, of Liverpool, 128 tons net, has been sunk by a German submarine. The captain and crew of the barque arrived at Queenstown to-day. They say that they were given time to take to their boats before the vessel was sunk by shellfire from the submarine. The Sunlight was bound from Macoris, Santo Domingo, for the Clyde.

The trawler Dromio, of Hull, also has been sunk by a submarine. The crew escaped.

London, June 7.—A dispatch received here from Aberdeen says the British steamer Star of the West has been sunk by a German submarine. A trawler brought the crew into Aberdeen.

MINE-LAYER SUNK IN THE AEGEAN SEA

Small French Vessel Struck a Mine; Sixty-Six Were Picked Up

Paris, June 7.—The ministry of marine has given out an official announcement reading:

"The French mine-layer Casablanca struck a mine at the entrance of a bay in the Aegean Sea. The captain and another officer and sixty-four sailors were picked up by a British torpedo boat destroyer. It is possible that other survivors were able to reach the coast where they may have been taken prisoners by the Turks."

HUNS SANK TRAWLER, KILLING FOUR MEN

London, June 7.—The trawler Arctic has been sunk in the North Sea by a German submarine. Five members of her crew were rescued, but four lost their lives from the shell fire of the under-sea boat.

SUED BECAUSE IT OBJECTS TO MURDER

Amsterdam, June 7.—The German ambassador to The Hague is suing the Telegraaf for damages for libel because of that paper's extremely bitter denunciation of the sinking of the Lusitania. It is the second libel suit the German ambassador has brought against a Dutch newspaper. The outcome of the suit is awaited with great interest.

DROPPED TEN CENTS IN TEN MINUTES OF TRADING

Winnipeg, June 7.—July wheat during the first ten minutes of business this morning dropped ten cents below Saturday's close. October also broke 48c in the early hours. The big slump was attributed to heavy selling orders from Europe and also from across the border, the additional rainfall in the west also having an influence. Oats opened 2c down, and flex 3c. to 2c. lower, both, however, rallying later.

The cash demand was extremely quiet for all grains. A light inquiry for No. 1, 2, 3 and 4 wheat was in evidence. Exporters reported little or no inquiry despite the heavy break in prices. The total inspections on Saturday were 218 cars, as against 222 cars last year, and 197 cars this year.

TWO PASTORS PREACH FAREWELL SERMONS

Rev. Thos. Keyworth and Rev. Thos. Green Bid Good-bye to Congregations

COPY OF REGISTER WAS NOT ADMISSIBLE

Notice of Intention of Prosecutor Not Given, Defendant is Freed

Two Methodist ministers of the city yesterday said farewell to their congregations, Rev. Thomas Keyworth, of Esquimalt Methodist church, and Rev. Thomas Green, of Centennial Methodist church, at their morning and evening services bidding good-bye to the people of their churches.

At Esquimalt Methodist church Mr. Keyworth had two very large congregations. In the morning, when he gave his last talk to the children of his church, many sailors from H. M. S. Kent were present. The pastor's subject on that occasion was "Personal-ity." In the evening he used the words of the Apostle Benediction: "The Grace of Lord Jesus Christ Abide With You All." In the course of his sermon Mr. Keyworth referred to the splendid opportunity which he had during his three years' pastorate to become acquainted with the people among whom he worked, and how, while parting from them, he wished to leave with them his best wishes.

To-morrow the retiring pastor, together with Mrs. Keyworth, will leave for his new charge at Cranbrook, B. C., where he will take up his duties in the new ministry at once, preaching for the first time next Sunday. His successor at Esquimalt church, Rev. R. Hughes, late of Kerrisdale, will arrive here about the end of the present or the beginning of next month, in the meantime services to be arranged. Next Sunday it will be the fourth anniversary of the Sunday school, and J. R. Cowell will preach both morning and evening. In the afternoon the children of the Sunday school will be addressed by Jos. Patrick, of James Bay Methodist Sunday school.

Rev. Thomas Green, at Centennial Methodist church, also had large congregations both morning and evening. In the morning he re-read the sermon delivered at the time of his inauguration to the church, in order to show the retrospective programme he had in view at that time, and how it had been carried out.

His real farewell to his congregation was in the evening, his text being from Acts 20, v. 17 to 38. Special emphasis was given to verse 32. "I command you to God, and to the word of His grace." In his three years' charge at Centennial Methodist church he had entered very much into the personal life of many of his congregants, and it was not easy to sever the sacred relationships and say good-bye. But in commending them to God he was reminding them of the impenetrable shield which would protect them at all times, no matter how great their enemy. All he wished to thank for their sympathy, help, and example, which had greatly assisted him in his work in the church.

Mr. Green, who is going to Dundas Methodist church, Woodstock, will remain in Victoria some time longer before proceeding to Ontario.

NEW HOTEL OPENS.

The Metropolis, Lately Completed, to Begin Business To-morrow.

Victoria's newest hotel, The Metropolis, lately completed at a cost of three hundred thousand dollars, will be opened to-morrow.

A legal point was raised in the police court this morning which resulted in the release from custody of George Bampton, who was on trial on a charge of obtaining a launch by false pretences. It became necessary for the prosecution to prove certain alleged entries in the books of the land registry office in Vancouver, and it was proposed to do this by a copy of the register. As the defence had not been given ten days' notice, and the defendant was on his trial and entitled to a speedy decision, the case was dismissed.

Bampton was defended by W. H. Bullock-Webster, and the private prosecution, at the instance of Harry Bentley, was conducted by H. S. Pringle. The charge had to do with the exchange of realty in Vancouver for the launch Annie, worth $750, in connection with which Bentley alleged that the defendant had made false representations as to the encumbrances on the realty which he gave in exchange for the launch. Bampton elected for a summary trial before the magistrate and pleaded not guilty.

Mr. Bullock-Webster asked for particulars of the alleged false pretences and the court ruled that he was entitled to have them.

Mr. Pringle stated that the facts as stated by the informant were that the defendant came over here and entered into negotiations for the exchange of an agreement for sale, subject to certain encumbrances, for the launch. The property was the west half of section 8, lot 22, D. L. 185, Vancouver district, and it was subject to a first mortgage for $4,000 and a second mortgage for a similar amount. It was also subject to an agreement for sale to Mrs. Lillian B. Coates, Vancouver, on which there was due $1,200. The case for the complainant was that there were other encumbrances which were not disclosed.

Bentley went into the box and gave evidence along this line, and stated that he would not have entered into the deal if he thought the property had any further encumbrances on it. He produced a number of documents which he had got from the defendant.

Mr. Pringle was about to put in what he said was a certified copy of the register in respect to this property, showing the charges against it.

Mr. Bullock-Webster objected to this, there being only two ways to prove a record of this kind, one by the book itself and the other by a certified copy of the record, but in the latter case the defence must be given at least ten days' notice of intention to use a copy. Such notice had not been given.

Mr. Pringle believed this difficulty could be got over and asked for a remand.

"But you cannot have it," said Mr. Bullock-Webster. "The accused is on his trial here and must have that trial proceeded with. He cannot be detained here in custody simply because the prosecution has not got its case properly in order."

Mr. Pringle referred to a section in the Land Registry act as to the use of a copy, but that could not apply in this case, the court held, as the case had no control over criminal proceedings.

The case was dismissed, Mr. Bullock-Webster remarking that the complainant had his recourse at civil law if he believed he had any cause of complaint.

Has Closed Scheme.—The Salvation Army has now closed its wood-cutting scheme whereby work was given to many unemployed during a time of great stress. Though the work has only been in operation for a few months, more than $5,000 has been paid out in wages, a fact which, speaks eloquently for the scheme and for the manner in which it was organized.

Many have puzzled themselves about the origin of evil. I observe there is evil, and that there is a way to escape it, and with this I begin and end.—John Newton.

JUDGMENTS GIVEN BY THE COURT OF APPEAL

Barnswell Judgment Upheld; Insurance Agent Has Right to Sue

Judgments were delivered in the court of appeal this morning as follows:

Mowat against Goodall, which is an appeal from the county court, is allowed with Mr. Justice Martin dissenting.

Barnswell against National Amusement Company, from the county court, appeal dismissed, Mr. Justice McPhillips and Mr. Justice Martin dissenting. Hemphill against McKinney, a Vancouver case, is dismissed.

The action of Mowat against Goodall is one of interest to insurance companies, for it involves the right of an agent to collect premiums. The appeal court judgment upholds the plaintiff.

John Mowat, trading as the Globe Realty company, was agent for the Hudson's Bay Insurance company, and insured the defendant's property. The premiums ran out, and the Globe company sent Mr. Goodall a renewal of the policy. He kept it for some time and then returned it to the agents with the intimation that he had not ordered it. They sued for the amount, and the court raised a point of great value to the insurance companies.

Judge Lampman was asked to decide on the agent's right in the case to sue, or whether it was the right of the insurance company. He found for the plaintiff and the court of appeal has upheld the decision.

In the case of Barnswell against the National Amusement Company, the plaintiff bought a ticket for admission to the old Empress theatre, and because he is a colored man the management of the theatre declined to admit him to the show which was then in progress. He sued for breach of contract and for damages and was given judgment by Judge Lampman. This judgment has been upheld.

The court has reserved judgment in Bergklint against Western Canada Power Company, and in Dominion Trust Company against Harper.

The court this afternoon commenced hearing arguments in Brighthouse against Hall, the latter being the appellant.

OBLIGED A FRIEND

Man Insured Gave Promissory Note, and Now Has Judgment Against Him.

There were several judgment cases before Judge Lampman in the county court this morning, and many and varied were the reasons for the judgments. One of the judgments was in favor of a plaintiff for not being able to satisfy the judgments which had been obtained against him. A man who had against him a judgment for $180 offered the explanation for not paying costs or judgment that he had made the debt to oblige a friend. He realized he was in a fix and said he did not know what would be the outcome of it. His worries were temporarily set over for no order was made against him.

His statement was that he was asked by a friend to insure his life, so the friend and a friend of the friend could get some commission. He insured for $5,000 and gave a promissory note for the premium. He was told, he said, the promissory note did not matter. It would be renewed at maturity, and if not collected then, the policy would lapse, and he would not have to pay.

The reason no order was made was that the judge was satisfied the debt or was not now in a position to pay. Another debtor offered his interest in a business as security for the judgment. The creditor's representative was very strongly. Others said they could not pay, and in cases where they showed they were not in possession of more than necessary funds no orders were made.

A German Arrested.—Chief Palmer, of the Esquimalt police, this morning found a German alien who was found wandering along the road in an advanced stage of intoxication, looking for Major Ridgway Wilson, the officer in charge of internment in this city. The man is one of those on the list at city police headquarters, who is reported to be a German.

If a man be gracious and courteous to strangers it shows he is a citizen of the world, and that his heart is not island-cut off from other lands, but a continent that joins to them.—Bacon.

SCHOOL ATTENDANCE

Small Decline is Reported in May as Against Month of April.

The school attendance for May shows a slight falling off from April. The returns were about 46 less than the previous month, allowing for the closing of McGill classes in May, 65 being deducted on this account.

TOBACCO FOR SOLDIERS

Cost and Trouble Saved by Generosity of Firm at Montreal.

In response to letters written in regard to difficulty of sending tobacco to soldiers at the front, the Imperial Tobacco company of Canada, Limited, Montreal, through their representative here, have written that persons can avoid delay and cost by sending their money direct to the company's export department, 300 St. Antoine street, Montreal. The letter reads:

"We have made special arrangements with the manufacturers in England of Players' cigarettes and Wills' tobacco to manufacture these two brands in bond in England and forward them in France. Owing to the fact that they are manufactured 'in bond' and to the courtesy of the French government in allowing them to enter France duty-free, the cost is reduced.

The letter explains that those who desire to send cigarettes, tobacco, or cigars to the front, the price of each parcel being $1, which includes the postal charge. Parcel C-1 contains 200 cigarettes; Parcel C-2 contains 100 cigarettes and half a pound of tobacco; Parcel C-3 contains one pound of tobacco.

By this method only a few days elapse from the time the order is received in England until delivered on the fighting line.

Persons sending money to the Imperial Tobacco company, Montreal, should state the desired parcel by the letter and figure given.

The Last Moments of the Giant Cunard Liner Lusitania

The above picture, drawn for The Sphere by F. Matania from information given him by survivors, shows some of the small boats attempting to get away from the starboard side of the Lusitania shortly before she took her side. One of these small boats was final plunge. For some little time after the first explosion the huge steamship remained on a fairly level keel, but just before she sank she suddenly took a sharp list to starboard, endangering the boats which still were close to her side. One of these small boats was wrecked through being too close.

COUNCIL BUSINESS DURING THIS WEEK

Several Meetings Have Already Been Arranged for Aldermen

The city council business this week will probably be exceptionally heavy. During to-day there are the usual meetings of the finance committee, and of the council in the evening. On Tuesday and Wednesday the civic court of revision will sit, and probably again one day later in the week. Fifty-eight appeals out of one hundred and forty have not yet been called, although most of those involving principles have already been before the court of revision. There will be a day set for a visit to the various properties which have been set over for personal inspection. Thornton Fell, K. C., will be the first lawyer heard on Tuesday when the court resumes.

The court, however, will only sit in the morning of Tuesday, as a luncheon to the officers of H. M. S. Kent is set for the afternoon.

On Thursday one of the most important courts of revision on local improvements will be held. Appeals will be heard against the assessments for the widening of Pandora avenue, between Douglas street and Amelia street on the north side, on Denman street widening and on Hillside avenue, between Cedar Hill road on the city limits. The Pandora avenue case had been adjourned for an exact statement on the cost to be made. The Denman street case was adjourned to enable the owners to receive credit on the bills for the dwellings sold thereon. The cost of the widening was $33,178. On Hillside avenue the expropriation case cost $70,298, while Pandora avenue, chiefly owing to the cost of buying at low prices, showed $152,604. There is an expropriation case on Pandora avenue, at the farther end of the street, which may be heard shortly, the Foxglove property, for which two of the three arbitrators have already been named, and with their appointment of a third one, as umpire, the hearing can proceed.

There will be the usual meetings on Friday, practically no streets committee business being done Friday on account of the lumber meeting occupying almost all the afternoon.

DEAL FIRMLY WITH THE ALIEN ENEMIES

The Hongkong Government is Winding Up Estates of Alien Holders in Colony

Passengers arriving on the Sado Maru on Saturday from the Orient mentioned that the campaign throughout the British empire against the alien enemies has gone a step further in some of the far eastern cities than has been the case here.

In Hongkong, according to Mr. Hutchings, who with his wife comes from that colony, "the government not only has interned the alien enemies of the British nation, but has confiscated their property and appointed receivers to wind it up in a legal fashion."

So bitter is the feeling against the Germans in the settlements that, according to Mr. Gater, who with his wife and child were passengers "those who are not in prison in Japan as a result of the capture of Tsing Tau have been expelled from the foreign clubs."

All the passengers agree there has been a remarkable movement of British born men back to Europe to join the allied armies, and that lawyers, doctors and other professional men, as well as many of the commercial classes, have laid down the occupations they follow in times of peace and hurried to the old country to enlist. Naturally this has depleted the ranks of professional and commercial undertakings, which have also suffered something of a check by the withdrawal of European capital, and a suspension of operations in the way of mining development and progress.

"China, however," a passenger said, "is settling down from the threatened crisis due to the Japanese demands, and there will be no blood split apparently in the negotiations. The latest news is that Japan has got all she really wants, and under one pretext or another the concessions sought have been granted during the absence of European interference, so that when the great war is over the diplomats of the European nations will find a very different state of things prevailing in Peking, with Japanese influence in the ascendancy."

That there may yet be trouble with the Chinese factions, which are quickly agitating in spite of the calm which appears on the surface of the Celestial republic, is generally admitted, missionaries and commercial men agreeing that there will be a change, but it is not certain yet from what quarter the upheaval will come.

NATIVE SONS' MEETING Big Attendance Looked for at Regular Gathering To-morrow Evening

A big attendance of Post No. 1, Native Sons of British Columbia is looked for at the regular meeting of the lodge, to be held to-morrow evening in the K. of P. hall, 540 North Park street. The annual roll call will take place on that occasion, when it is hoped that every member will be present to answer to his name. The grand factor of the order will make an official visit to the post also, and the evening will be passed in the most enjoyable manner possible.

The B. C. Pioneer society, organized on April 28, 1871, was indirectly responsible, as the membership was depleted by death of many old-timers, for the formation of the Native Sons, which came into existence on March 22, 1899. This order was organized by the young and native born men of the province, the first officers including James Stuart Yates, chief factor, and Arthur E. Haynes, secretary. Since then the B. C. Pioneer society has been amalgamated with the Native Sons' society. Native born sons are invited to register their names with the present secretary, Reginald Hayward, 734 Broughton street. No charge is made.

ANXIOUSLY AWAITING SEPARATION MOVEMENT

Position of American Residents in Philippines, Says Lady Passenger, is Precarious

"Everything in the Philippines depends on the future of the Jones bill for self-government of the group," according to Mrs. V. L. Welch, wife of a lawyer at Manila, who formerly held an important position with the government, and was one of those affected by the displacement of republican appointees when the democratic administration came into power.

"It is surprising in Manila how the stores are showing the effect of the uncertainty in the political situation. The stockholders appear to be unwilling to replenish their stocks, and fear that if the Filipino government is set up the Americans will leave the country, with the exception of a few who have extensive commercial interests."

Mrs. Welch stated that the method adopted to get rid of officials appointed under the Taft and Roosevelt regimes was to make their position so uncomfortable, by appointing Filipinos over them, that resignation was the only course open, and in that way the governor had carried out the wishes of Washington without incurring the odium of wholesale dismissals.

She said it was due to this uncertainty rather than to the European war that financial conditions in the islands were so bad at this time, the crops on the whole having been good. The matter of fact the group was feeling the pressure of economical conditions than the United States itself, but this political question outweighed everything.

She wished, however, to state that on the whole the Filipinos in the assembly had behaved fairly well with their exiled American friends, and that it was only once self-government was conceded, conditions would be made unbearable for the bulk of the American residents, who have made homes in the country since the annexation.

Mrs. Welch had an unpleasant experience as she was preparing to leave Manila, her residence with all its contents being destroyed by fire, and she had some difficulty in making the necessary arrangements to travel in the brief interval that remained.

Wife—"I want to go to town to-day to get some new dresses, a hat, and shoes. What's the weather forecast?" Husband—"Rain, hail, sleet, frost, and thunderstorms."
